Report on Two days Seminar on Gender Sensitization

Gender sensitization is a basic requirements to understand the sensitive needs of a particular gender. It helps us to examine our personal attitudes, beliefs and question the realities that we thought we know. The need for this sensitivity has been felt and realized through times immemorial and in almost all kinds of human existence, across the globe.

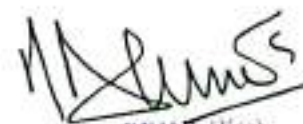

Day 1 - 7.01.2020

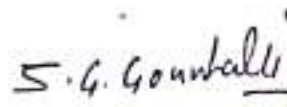

Smt Rashmi.S Chief editor Prajavani, Hubli spoke on Gender sensitization. Man was considered as provider of basic Necessities for family & women. The child bearer and care taker of home. Till recently women were accorded for the role of inferior sex and prized procession on man. The changes and flexibility in gender roles which are being evident today has its roots in the changing social structure. An emergent phenomenon is the growing flexibility and changes in the gender roles of men and women. She interacted with students asking questions how many are you at home?, what work your brother do at home?, how parent support you and your brother?, what is your reaction?, How do you feel being a women. Another guest Dr. Ananth D chinchure associate professor Dept of Law spoke on gender sensitization and information technology. With PPT presentation he explained 21st Century is an era of information and technology, using technology for gender sensitization there are many merits and demerits that have to be dealt carefully. Information technology is playing a vital role in gender sensitization. Poster presentation was organized 11 students were participated, 3 were declared 1st, 2nd, 3rd prize. Judges for poster presentation were Dr. Ananth C, and Dr. Ambika S.

Sri Narendra Badsheshi Rtd Principal MSI PU college Kalaburagi spoke on the topic Socialization and mindset. Women empowerment irrespective of caste, creed, religion and gender is constitutional mandate, a basic human right and national development, changing family structures have both positive and negative influences on gender roles. Women have been faced circumstances to take up family responsibilities with the structure, men and women have learnt to appreciate each others role and redefine gender role. Presidential remarks by our principal Dr. Rajendra Konda. Vote of thanks by Smt Usha patil.
