More than hundred alumni had gathered there. It was indeed a gathering of our distinguished alumnae, who have proved their worth significance to the society. They have made a remarkable contribution to their respective field with the same zeal and passion for work, they have entered into the portals of our college after a long time as they have passed from our college, at least a couple of years ago. They indeed unlocked their loads of dreams, which they wanted to translate into action in the college through various activities. They also inspired the other member of alumni to contribute their might in the development of the college.

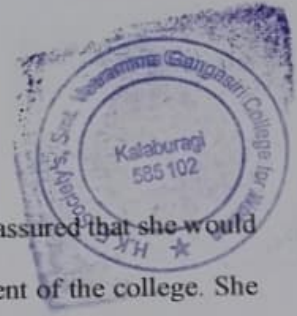

It indeed was a beautiful congregation of alumnae. It was also a great occasion to recall their memories. The principal and president of the Association presided over the function. Smt. Kalavati D welcomed the gathering and in her introductory speech highlighted on the importance and role of Alumni in the development of the college through quoting some examples. With the permissions of the president of the function announced the names of the new members of executive body.
